

Annual Dinner

Wednesday 27 November 2013

Law Society – 6.45pm for 7.30pm

Black tie

All members and their guests are invited to the Annual Dinner of the Association which will be held at the Law Society on Wednesday 27 November 2013.

The event is the annual opportunity for litigators to meet and discuss topical issues with each other and a variety of guests from the judiciary, Bar and the rule making bodies all of whom are well represented on the night.

To make the evening go with a swing, Ali Sephton, singer songwriter, will entertain us after dinner on piano and vocals.

The cost of tickets is £95 per head including champagne and wine before and during the meal. There will also be a bar available for other drinks both before and after the dinner.

To apply for tickets please complete the form enclosed and return it as soon as possible as this event sells out quickly. Please specify any dietary requirements and list all attendees when returning the form.
