

Junior LSLA Autumn Seminar

Tuesday, 17 October 2017

Kindly hosted by Macfarlanes LLP, and in conjunction with Fountain Court Chambers, we are pleased to announce the details of the Junior LSLA Autumn Lecture as part of our series of events targeted at junior members of the profession.

“A Perfect Marriage? – Managing the Barrister-Solicitor Relationship”

Samuel Ritchie (Counsel, Fountain Court Chambers), Richard Evans (Clerk, Fountain Court Chambers), and Nii Anteson (Associate, Simmons & Simmons)

Barristers and solicitors form the ultimate legal partnership, with an essential mutual reliance and foundation of trust at its heart. For junior practitioners, whether barrister or solicitor, forging that partnership can benefit not only our clients – with a good relationship between Counsel and instructing solicitors often having a determinative effect upon the outcome of litigation – but can also serve to educate and develop careers.

However, it is not always smooth sailing to the courtroom.

Chaired by Leigh Callaway (Fladgate LLP), our expert panel will discuss the intricacies of the barrister-solicitor relationship, good practices, pet peeves, and top-tips of how to ensure that relationship is a success.

Venue: Macfarlanes LLP, 20 Cursitor Street London EC4A 1LT

Time: 6pm, for 6:30pm start with drinks, canapés and networking from 7.30pm.
