

Junior LSLA Spring Seminar Thursday, 9 February 2017

Kindly hosted by Fladgate LLP, we are pleased to announce the details of the Junior LSLA Spring Lecture as part of our series of events targeted at junior members of the profession.

“Start at the Beginning – How to Frame your Claim”

Francesca Kaye (Partner with Russell-Cooke LLP who sits as both a Deputy Chancery Master and Deputy District Judge), Emma Hargreaves (Serle Court), and Leigh Callaway (Fladgate LLP)

Commencing court proceedings is a serious step for any party embroiled in a commercial dispute, and sets that party on a course the end of which is often highly uncertain. It is pivotal that before embarking on that course a dispute is explored and mapped out, a process that is often far more complex than it sounds, with cases being won or lost as a result of decisions or actions taken in the early stages of litigation.

Chaired by Elaina Bailes (Stewarts Law LLP), our expert panel will discuss the legal, commercial and strategic steps to consider when investigating and constructing a claim, provide their top-tips, and highlight common pitfalls to avoid.

Venue: Fladgate LLP, 16 Great Queen Street, London WC2B 5DG

Time: 6pm, for 6:30pm start with drinks, canapés and networking from 7.30pm.
