

Spring/Summer Lectures 2017

We are delighted to announce the details of the next series of LSLA lectures which will constitute talks by eminent practitioners on topical subjects of legal interest.

Wednesday 10 May 2017 at Herbert Smith Freehills LLP

"Instructing Experts – the do's and don'ts"

Matthew Marsh (Chief Master of the Chancery Division), Camilla Bingham QC (One Essex Court), Roger Franklin (Edwin Coe LLP), Nick Andrew (Grant Thornton), and Nikki Edwards (Temple Bright) as Chair

This panel session will provide some practical and legal guidance on how to instruct experts, drawing upon the collective expertise and differing perspectives of members of the Bar, judiciary, solicitors and experts.

Wednesday 24 May 2017 at Slaughter and May

"Paranoia on the Clapham Omnibus"

Toby Landau QC – Essex Court Chambers

The lecture will analyse and criticise recent developments in the law of apparent bias and conflicts of interest in the fields of litigation, commercial and investor-state arbitration, and public international law. Comparisons will be drawn between the treatment of this topic as between court and international tribunals, and as between conventional law and soft law.

Thursday 15 June 2017 at Herbert Smith Freehills LLP

"Under Siege – an Update on Legal Professional Privilege"

Colin Passmore, Simmons & Simmons LLP

Senior Partner of Simmons & Simmons LLP and author of leading textbook "Privilege", Colin Passmore will address recent developments and the increasing attacks on legal professional privilege. Colin's talk will include a commentary on the RBS case, and the increasingly aggressive approach being taken by some regulators.

Wednesday 12 July 2017 at Slaughter and May

"Freezing Orders: Practical guidance on obtaining, resisting, policing and enforcing them"

Nathan Pillow QC – Essex Court Chambers

Highly commended in Chambers UK and Legal 500 directories for many years, and recently recognised in The Lawyer's "Hot 100 2017", Nathan will focus on practical issues concerning the ex parte application, policing the respondent's compliance, making a discharge application, and seeking committal to prison for breach.

Attendance is not limited to LSLA members. Anyone can apply for tickets via the website – <http://www.lsla.co.uk/> – or via the attached form – an email will be sent confirming your place a few days before the lecture. The cost is £20 per event or £70 for all four (non-members £25 or £90). Our lectures are usually sold out, so please apply early.

The panel session on experts on 10 May 2017 and lecture by Colin Passmore on 15 June 2017 will be held in the Auditorium at Herbert Smith Freehills, Exchange House, Primrose St, London EC2A 2EG. The lecture by Toby Landau QC on 24 May 2017 and Nathan Pillow QC's lecture on 12 July 2017 will be held at Slaughter and May, One Bunhill Row, EC1Y 8YY. The events will start at 6.00pm and will last approximately one hour, to include a period for questions at the end, and will be followed by drinks.
