We are delighted to announce the details of the next series of LSLA lectures which will constitute talks by eminent practitioners on topical subjects of legal interest.

Tuesday 17 May 2016 at Simmons & Simmons

“Courts and Litigation in 2016 and beyond”

The Hon Mr Justice Birss and Ed Crosse

After the upheaval of the Jackson reforms in 2013, civil litigators might have been forgiven for thinking that there would be a period without further substantial changes, while things bedded down. However, with several pilot schemes of new procedures currently underway and wide-ranging proposals for further changes arising from the Interim Briggs Report, there seems to be no let-up in the pace of change. The Honourable Mr Justice Birss (Chancery Division) and Ed Crosse, President of the LSLA and Partner at Simmons & Simmons LLP, will be presenting on recent developments affecting the Rolls Building Courts.

Tuesday 7 June 2016 at Hogan Lovells

“What does a commercial litigator need to know about human rights?”

Jonathan Crow QC – 4 Stone Buildings Chambers

Jonathan Crow QC will consider: How does the European Convention on Human Rights work on the international level? How does the Human Rights Act work on the domestic level? Which Convention rights are likely to be engaged in commercial litigation? How in practice are those rights likely to impact on commercial litigation?

Tuesday 21 June 2016 at Herbert Smith Freehills

“Is there no stopping contractual estoppel?”

Daniel Toledano QC – One Essex Court Chambers

The doctrine of contractual estoppel has been developed in the context of disputes arising from the financial crisis but is now being argued and applied in a far wider range of cases – should the law impose any limits and would this be consistent with the fundamental principle of freedom of contract?

Wednesday 6 July 2016 at Hogan Lovells

“Recent Developments in Unjust Enrichment”

Laurence Rabinowitz QC – One Essex Court Chambers

Laurence Rabinowitz QC is generally recognised as one of the leading silks at the Bar. He will be talking about recent developments in the law of restitution following decisions of the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeal in Menelaou, ITC and Littlewoods.

Attendance is not limited to LSLA members. Anyone can apply for tickets via the website – <http://www.lsla.co.uk/> – or via the attached form and the lectures count for CPD purposes (the CPD reference will be on the confirmatory email sent a few days before the lecture). The cost is £20 per event or £70 for all four (non-members £25 or £90). Our lectures are usually sold out, so please apply early for tickets.

The lecture by The Hon Mr Justice Birss and Ed Crosse on 17 May 2016 will be held at Simmons & Simmons at CityPoint, One Ropemaker Street, London EC2Y 9SS. The lecture by Daniel Toledano QC on 21 June 2016 will be held at the Auditorium at Herbert Smith Freehills, Exchange House, Primrose Street, London EC2A 2HS, and the lectures by Jonathan Crow QC on 7 June 2016 and by Laurence Rabinowitz QC on 6 July 2016, respectively, will be held at the Auditorium at Hogan Lovells, Atlantic House, 50 Holborn Viaduct, London EC1A 2FG. The lectures will start at 6.00pm and will last approximately one hour, to include a period for questions at the end, and will be followed by drinks.
